U.S. Embassy Chargé d’Affaires Visits Ministry of Housing

Port of Spain – Today, Dr. Jenifer Neidhart de Ortiz, Chargé d’Affaires at the U.S. Embassy, paid a courtesy call to the Honourable David Lee, Minister of Housing; the Honourable Anil Roberts, Minister in the Ministry of Housing; and the Honourable Phillip Edward Alexander, Minister in the Ministry of Housing. Dr. Neidhart de Ortiz was accompanied by Mr. Scott W. Hansen, Political and Economic Counselor at the U.S. Embassy.

During the visit, the Ministers, together with the Permanent Secretary (Ag.) and Deputy Permanent Secretary (Ag.), engaged in meaningful discussions on the Ministry’s housing agenda and the vital role of developing sustainable communities in Trinidad and Tobago. Both parties shared insights and experiences from their respective roles, highlighting the shared commitment to building resilient and inclusive communities.

The Ministry of Housing remains steadfast in its mission to provide accessible and affordable housing solutions, foster sustainable communities, and contribute to the broader national development of Trinidad and Tobago.
