Habitat for Humanity and Ministry of Housing Hold Strategic Talks to Advance Affordable Housing Solutions

Port of Spain — Today, Mrs. Jennifer Massiah, National Director of Habitat for Humanity Trinidad and Tobago, along with Chairman ____ and ____, met with Dr. the Honourable David Lee, Minister of Housing, and Senators the Honourable Anil Roberts and Phillip Alexander, Ministers in the Ministry of Housing, at the Ministry's South Quay building in Port of Spain.

In the presence of the Permanent Secretary (Ag.) and Deputy Permanent Secretary, the Habitat for Humanity representatives extended their congratulations to the Ministers on their recent appointments. The discussions focused on community development and improving the lives of vulnerable citizens.

The meeting also explored the importance of implementing impactful policies and initiatives to promote affordable housing, urban renewal, and equitable access to shelter for all citizens of Trinidad and Tobago.

This engagement underscored the shared commitment between Habitat for Humanity and the Ministry of Housing to deliver affordable, sustainable, and resilient housing solutions to the population.

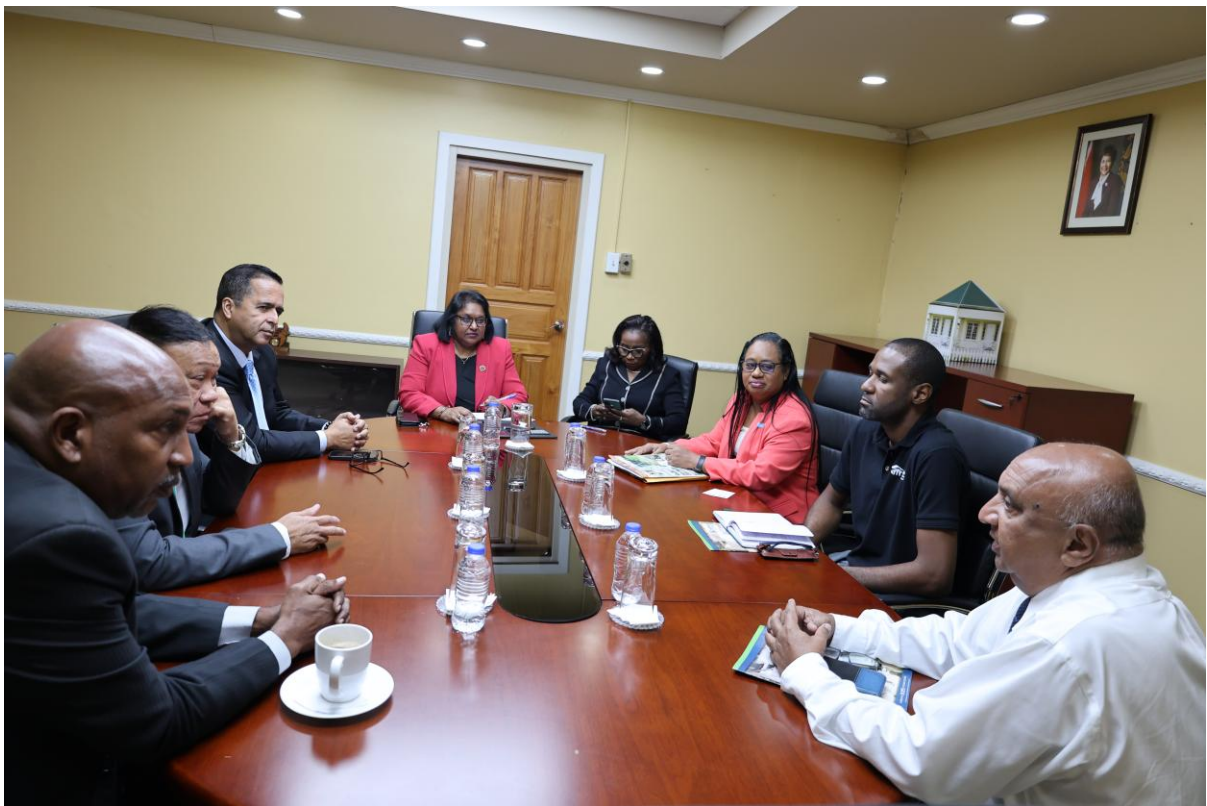

The Ministry of Housing remains dedicated to providing accessible and affordable housing solutions, fostering sustainable communities, and advancing national development.
